the old Institute. He is having a 40x12 foot veranda across the front and a carriage porch on the west and will re-roof it.

The latest and most exquisite designs in Spring millinery is to be found at Misses Nevins.
They have secured the millinery artist, Miss Duffy, of Kansas City, to assist them.

Harry Linn and family have moved from Ft. Worth, Tex., to Temple, Oklahoma, where they will live until they build on their claim and near that place Foss Barr has a claim a mile and a half from Mr. Linn's claim. They are well pleased with their new home and their many friends here wish them much prosperity.

Washington, March 18—The case of Aggie Myers, who is held under sentence of death in Clay county, Missouri, was today advanced in the United States supreme court docket for hearing on April 22, on the appeal of the attorneys for the woman from the decision of the lower court denying her a writ of habeas corpus.

I have several hundred dol-

Rogers & Thompson Millinery Announcement

We cordially invite every lady in Monroe City and vicinity to visit our Millinery Department and view the beautiful array of Spring Hats now on exhibition

This Department is again under the able management of Miss Maude Evans, assisted by Miss Laura Bell and have prepared for a very large business

They can show you by far the most extensive line and at prices that will positively save you money

It will be to your advantage to make your selection early before the rush starts

See Conway's line of $20 Suits, made to your measure.

Only One.

Charlie Ryan doesn't care a rap about a corn crop for he has a ten pound baby boy at his home and that changes the whole of life for him.

Mrs W. M. Blackwell of north of the city, visited Hunnewell relatives the first of the week.

Bob Donaldson, of Stoutsville wanted to see the sun shine once more without laying flat on his back and looking straight up, so came over to Monroe, The Queen of the Prairies, Monday.

Why pay $18 to $20 for a ready made suit when you can have one tailor made for the same money.

Bad Knee.

While handling a hog Monday evening George W. Kidd wrenched his left knee in such a manner as to leave the ligaments in bad condition.

Buy your wife a new rake, hoe and spade so she can get an early start in the garden. A.
Jaeger sells the celebrated Geneva garden tools.

Mr and Mrs Edward Lake of Huntington were shoppers in the city Monday.
